Bio:

Considered to be one of, if not THE fastest rising star in the Baltimore/DC comedy scene, Justin Schlegel has a comedy style so wild and outrageous, you can't help but wait to see what pops out of his mouth next! One of the brightest young stars on the east coast, Justin can be found working many of the major clubs regularly throughout the year. His friendly demeanor with just a touch of paranoid schizophrenia is a huge hit with all audiences, ESPECIALLY paranoid schizophrenics (they have few heroes...). His style has been compared to Jim Carrey, and Brian Regan, but with a flavor that's all his own. He is also known for writing crappy bios, so if you ever have a "sub-par bio festival", please consider him as your keynote speaker. He lives alone with cats.
